After Reach

I have been recently obsessed with the Halo series, but I have been playing the games since I was a kid. I have been a member of this cite for many years now and I think I am ready to post one of my own stories. I am currently reading the books now to get more aquatinted with the behaviors of others outside of battle. However, I wanted to start posting little blurbs of the story I am writing about it. I haven't ever shared my stories before so this shall be a first and I am a little excited to get some feed back from people.
